

Alexandre de Vaivre joins PAREF Group as new Head of Capital Markets

PAREF Group announces the appointment of Alexandre de Vaivre as Head of Capital Markets to strengthen its business strategy with institutional investors and family offices.

Given more than 27 years of experience in the financial sector in both public and private markets, he has a perfect knowledge of investors as well as strategic and technical issues. Alexandre de Vaivre comes as a strong commercial asset for the Group.

Prior to joining PAREF, Alexandre has started his career as Head of Sales for the derivatives desks of Société Générale and BNP Paribas before moving to Schroder Adveq in Switzerland as Managing Director and member of the Executive Committee of the Swiss Private Equity group. Alexandre then headed the Swiss subsidiary of a family office, also a major real estate player. He co-founded Investment Circle, an investment and consulting firm specialized in ClimateTech. Alexandre de Vaivre also graduated from EDHEC Business School.

Reporting directly to Antoine Castro, Chairman and CEO of PAREF Group, Alexandre took up his position on September 26th 2022.

" We are delighted to welcome Alexandre, who will be a great asset to PAREF team thanks to his strong track record of fundraising and building sustainable relationships with investors. The depth of Alexandre's experience and his longstanding network with limited partners built over its 30 years track record will, for sure, contribute to the Group ambitions ", says Antoine Castro, Chairman & CEO of PAREF Group.

"With nearly €3 billion assets under management, a pan-European presence, a dynamic and visionary leadership team with ambitious goals, PAREF is well prepared to continue its expansion and become a key player. I am delighted to join PAREF Group to contribute to its international business development, to conquer new markets and to serve sophisticated investors around the world" comments Alexandre de Vaivre.
